C.M. No.8435 of 2007

Documents (Annexures P-6 & P-7 are taken on record.

C.M. disposed of.

Main case

The petitioner has prayed for quashing the order (Annexure P-1) by which the appointment of the petitioner as a Social Studies Guest Teacher was set aside and respondent No.5 was appointed in her place. Counsel for the petitioner contends that the petitioner belongs to village Taruana whereas, respondent No.5 is a resident of Mandi Dabwali and hence it is the petitioner who should have been given preference in the appointment of a Guest Faculty Teacher.

A perusal of the policy which has been annexed as Annexure P-7 shows that engagement of Teachers on Guest Faculty is not an appointment but a job work offer on period basis on prescribed rates. Guest Faculty Teachers are appointed to take care of the students where regular Teachers are not available in the school.

In view of the fact that the nature of job of a Guest Faculty Teacher is temporary, therefore, the petitioner has no substantive right to be appointed as a Guest Faculty Teacher.

No merit. Dismissed.
